Special Sale of High Class and General Purpose Horses

Great Southern Horse and Mule Bazaar. 1806-1812 East Franklin Street. Wednesday, March 21, 1900.

This will be one of the largest sales we have had this year, and all our regular shippers will have consignments.

We have made a special effort to have a good lot of stock for this sale, and we think you will find the best lot of Drivers and Workers that you have ever seen together.

we think you will have Horses of all classes, and there will be no trouble for you to seen together.

We will have Horses of all classes, and there will be no trouble for you to get what you want at satisfactory prices.

Our Mules are extra good and smooth, and weigh from 350 to 1,300 pounds. Horses and Mules are selling lower on our market than they have sold this season. We would advise you to buy now, as prices are liable to go up at any time.

ACARD.

To My Friends and Fellow-Citizens of Richmond:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of City Treasurer, subject to the Democratic Primary. In announcing myself I take the opportunity to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me during my incumbency, and to pledge to my friends and fellow-citizens a continued performance of the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and in conducting the affairs of the city I promise to bring to bear the best business methods of which I am possessed. Soliciting a renewal of your friendship and confidence, I am,
Yours very respectfully.

Thread Va March 17, 1990. To My Friends and Fellow-Citizens of Richmond:

mh18 C. H. PHILLIPS.

Richmond, Va., March 17, 1900.

MANY CITIZENS OF MADISON WARD:
Gentlemen,—Deeply sensible of past honors you have conferred on me in electing and re-electing me three consecutive times to the Council, and flattered by your present and most complimentary call to announce myself as candidate for the COMMON COUNCIL for your ward, I am constrained to accede to your request, but at the same time the nature of my business will prevent my making an active canvass, and I shall, therefore, have to rely on the active support of my friends and citizens generally for election. My record as your representative for six years is before you, and I hereby announce myself as a candidate for election to the Common Council for Madison Ward, subject to your approval at the Primary.

Very Sincerely,
mitils WM L WHITE.

I BEG TO ANNOUNCE TO MY friends and the public that I am a candidate for the position of HIGH CONSTABLE, subject to the Democratic Primary. Having been a candidate two years ago, I thank my friends for their generous support in the past, and hope a continuance of same, mhis JOHN KRAUSSE.
